SEPARATE CAM EVENT THE WEEK OF OPEN HOUSE

The following event is not part of Open House, but has been scheduled for those who wish to conveniently attend both events.

Introduction to Cross-Cultural Ministry workshop

Thursday, November 5 | 8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

Maranatha Fellowship

941 State Route 93 NW, Sugarcreek, OH 44681

Have you ever wondered if serving overseas was right for you, and what it takes to be effective working in another country? Come for a stretching, interactive day of learning about cross-cultural ministry and gaining further insight on how to prepare for this work. Families welcome! An ethnic meal is included.

Sessions include:

- Who is called to cross-cultural work? Reuben Yoder
- Why humility matters Johnny Miller
- Dilemmas of poverty alleviation James B. Mullet
- Relieving the greatest stressor in foreign missions Johnny Miller

Prior registration required. Deadline: October 26.

Limited to 30 adults, plus children.

Cost: $99 per adult. Children with their family: $10 each.

For more information or to register, email hr@camoh.org or call 540.285.0018.

Global Village

Poverty Exhibit and Bookstore

Opening over the time of Open House

The exhibit features spiritual and physical poverty through informative, edifying, and interactive displays.

INDIA

What is life like for widows, lepers, and street children in India? Visit this exhibit and experience the reality of lifelong entrapment, hopelessness, and fear faced by vulnerable people who are often unseen, unheard, and forgotten.

ROMANIA

Many elderly people in Romania live in poverty, cold, and loneliness during the winter months. Come find out more about the daily challenges faced by the elderly in Romania.

RESTRICTED COUNTRIES

What would it be like to live in a country where it is dangerous to own a Bible and identify as a Christian? Come browse this exhibit and learn about the great need for Bibles in restricted countries, the dangers Bible distributors face, and that persecution continues to happen on a large scale in some countries.

Browse our new bookstore where you will find books for everyone in the family. We are excited to share some new titles including Shards of Grace by Anya Hursh, On the Brink by Shawn Miller, Catching Mr. Chubs by Julia Stauffer, The Last Hymn by Rebecca Martin, and Meet Me Under the Mango Tree by Melodi Korver and Sharilyn Martin.
